Ocean baptism tonight!

Tonight is one of my favorite worship experiences of the entire year! Every August, we draw the summer to close with our beach baptism service. This year we had to reschedule due to the weather. Therefore, tonight we will gather at 6:30pm at the 16th Ave N beach access in Surfside for a special time of worship, testimony, and baptism.

So, bring your beach chair or towel and come ready to be blessed. There is public parking behind the Holiday Inn that should be free after 6pm. We will also have a golf cart shuttle to take you to and from our church campus.

Tonight is yet another reminder that God is at work in our church! This evening, we will be celebrating six individuals who have given their life to Christ! This coming Sunday we will be baptizing another. If you wonder if God is still working, look no further! Here are seven people whose life has been transformed by Christ!

I hope you will join us this evening as we celebrate a God who is still transforming lives!

In Christ,

Pastor Nathan

Opportunity for Parents!

Are you a parent of an older child or teenager? Do you want to raise your child to know and follow Jesus but struggle with how? Do you struggle with knowing how to have conversations about difficult cultural topics?

If that is you, you are a normal parent! If that is you, there is hope. This fall we are considering offering a short four week course on helping parents know how to have conversations about difficult cultural topics with their children.

The course will be facilitated by Diane Yarbrough and Mica Pruitt will include reading, discussion, short videos, prayer, and more.
